

I am not in agreement that persons with previous business contact should be allowed to solicit business by contacting residents of Indiana by phone. Since the law was enacted I have been exceptionally pleased by the lack of phone marketers calling during the dinner hours. I do not want the companies calling me. If there is something that I need from them , I would prefer to initiate the contact.

David Allan